STEPS TO TAKE IF YOU ARE FACING EVICTION

1. Stay put

An eviction notice is not an eviction order. Only courts have the legal authority to evict tenants. Do not vacate your rental property.

2. Apply for rental assistance and contact free legal aid

Call (866) 313-2520 or visit DetroitEvictionHelp.com to access free legal counsel and to apply for rental assistance.

3. Protect yourself under the federal eviction moratorium

If you are facing eviction for unpaid rent to your landlord, assert your right to remain in the property until June 30th by filling out the CDC declaration form: https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/downloads/EvictionDeclare_d508.pdf and delivering a copy of it to your landlord (keep a copy for your records).

4. Attend any and all court hearings

If you received a summons from the 36th district court it should include the date and time of your hearing and instructions for how to attend. Your hearing is likely scheduled to take place remotely (online via “Zoom” or by phone, rather than in person). You can look up your case online at:

dapps.36thdistrictcourt.org/ROAWEBINQ/

5. Defend your home if necessary

Regardless of what happens in court, know that there are people willing to stand with you if you are willing to fight your eviction and keep you and your family safely housed.
